

Modern Slavery Statement for Financial Year 2019

This statement is made pursuant to Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and sets out the steps that Harley-Davidson Europe Ltd. has taken and continue to take to ensure that modern slavery or human trafficking is not taking place within our business or supply chain.

Harley-Davidson is committed to ensuring our operations and supply chains are free from involuntary labor and human trafficking. This commitment applies to all Harley-Davidson employees, officers and directors as well as all individuals and entities doing business with and for Harley-Davidson.

Our business:

Harley-Davidson Motor Company was founded in 1903. Harley-Davidson, Inc. was incorporated in 1981, at which time it purchased the Harley-Davidson® motorcycle business from AMF Incorporated in a management buyout. In 1986, Harley-Davidson, Inc. became publicly held.

Harley-Davidson, Inc. is the parent company for the groups of companies doing business as Harley-Davidson Motor Company (HDMC) and Harley-Davidson Financial Services (HDFS). Harley-Davidson Inc. is the ultimate parent of Harley-Davidson Europe Ltd.

Harley-Davidson, Inc. operates in two segments: the Motorcycles & Related Products (Motorcycles) segment and the Financial Services segment. While the two segments are strategic business units that offer different products and services and are managed separately based on the fundamental differences in their operations, the two segments work closely together as described below.

The Motorcycles segment designs, manufactures and sells at wholesale on-road Harley-Davidson motorcycles as well as a line of motorcycle parts, accessories, general merchandise and related services. Harley-Davidson Europe Ltd. sells the company's products to retail customers through a network of independent dealers in Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

The Financial Services segment consists of HDFS which provides wholesale and retail financing and insurance and insurance-related programs primarily to Harley-Davidson dealers and their retail customers. HDFS conducts business principally in the United States and Canada.

Our policies:

Harley-Davidson Inc. has the following internal policies to ensure that we are conducting business in an ethical and transparent manner. These include:

Code of Conduct. A global Code of Business Conduct is applicable to all individuals working for Harley-Davidson worldwide including direct employees and contract staff.

Training. Harley-Davidson provides training with regard to involuntary labor and human trafficking to employees and other individuals who are directly responsible for our supply chain management.

Employee Commitment. Employees and individuals who fail to follow Harley-Davidson's processes and policies prohibiting involuntary labor and human trafficking are subject to discipline.

Our Supply Chain:

Harley-Davidson has direct relationships with our Tier 1 suppliers and we have the following policies in place in connection with our supply chain.

Supply Agreements. Harley-Davidson has a contract policy that requires "all" commitments to be in writing. We have Master Supply Agreements with our Tier 1 suppliers that prohibit suppliers from using involuntary or forced labor in the production of goods for Harley-Davidson. In addition, we are implementing a process for our direct suppliers to regularly certify that the materials incorporated into the product sold to Harley-Davidson comply with the laws regarding slavery and human trafficking of the country or countries where they conduct business.

On Site Inspections. As part of our supplier onboarding process, Harley-Davidson performs on-site inspections of our Tier 1 suppliers' facilities, safety conditions and processes to help ensure they comply with laws and regulations regarding involuntary labor and human trafficking. Currently, the audits are performed by Harley-Davidson employees through scheduled visits with the supplier.

Supplier Code of Conduct. Harley-Davidson has a global Supplier Code of Conduct which is given to our Tier 1 suppliers as part of our supplier onboarding process. The Supplier Code of Conduct contains language clearly prohibiting the use, of any form of slave, forced, bonded, indentured or involuntary labor, regardless of local business customs.

Approval for this statement.

This statement was approved by the Board of Directors on June 13, 2019

Paul Sweeney
Finance Director

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Paul Sweeney".

June 13, 2019