

Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

Respecting Human Rights

Human rights are basic rights and freedoms to which all people are entitled. SCA supports and respects internationally proclaimed human rights wherever we operate. In line with the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, we have integrated these principles into the SCA Group Code of Conduct, applicable to all SCA companies worldwide and their daily business practices.

Our approach includes a commitment to:

- uphold and communicate our values and standards at our workplace, in our operations and towards our business partners;
- ensure we have processes in place to avoid human rights abuses;
- address any negative human rights impacts which our business may cause or contribute to;
- track and communicate our performance to our stakeholders; and
- use our influence to promote and support human rights in the communities in which we operate through community engagement and external initiatives such as the UN Global Compact.

Furthermore, SCA recognizes children as stakeholders who need particular protection. Guided by the Children's Rights and Business Principles we will respect and support children's rights in our business and society. Wherever SCA's business activities impact children, we will keep the interests of the children in mind.

Child Labour

SCA does not tolerate child labour in our own facilities or the operations of any business partner and we will comply with applicable national laws and applicable international standards on minimum age wherever we operate.

Forced Labour

Forced, bonded or other forms of compulsory labour and physical punishment are not permitted. No employee may be required to lodge "deposits" or deprived of identity papers upon commencement of employment. Employees must report suspicions of forced labour, child labour or physical punishment at any SCA facility or the facilities of any supplier, distributor or other business partner.

SCA has taken a variety of actions to verify the absence of forced labour, slavery, and human trafficking in our supply chain, including the following:

1. VERIFICATION AND RISK ASSESSMENT:

On an annual basis, SCA's major suppliers are evaluated from a risk perspective as a part of the Sourcing Strategy. Among the risks taken into consideration are Financial, Geopolitical, Environmental, Legal, Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), Intellectual Property, and Market / Supply. The resulting aggregated risk index for a supplier can trigger a specific CSR audit.

2. GLOBAL SUPPLIER STANDARD COMPLIANCE:

Key suppliers are obliged to comply with SCA's Global Supplier Standard. This document includes a Supplier Code of Conduct that states SCA's expectations on suppliers in the following areas:

- compliance with laws,
- health & safety,
- employee relations,
- business practice,
- community relations,
- privacy of data,
- environment
- respect for human rights (specific mention of forced or compulsory labour)

Key suppliers operations are audited to ensure compliance with SCA's Global Supplier Standard on a regular basis.

3. SUPPLIER ETHICAL DATA EXCHANGE (SEDEX):

All suppliers are instructed to share their ethical and social status through the online information tool SEDEX (<http://www.sedexglobal.com/>)

4. AUDITS:

SCA conduct CSR audits (carried out by accredited third-party auditors) following the SA8000 standard. Decision to initiate an audit is based on international indices such as Maplecroft's Human Rights Risk Index, outcome from SEDEX questionnaire or outcome from SCA's own Global Supplier Standard audits.

5. CODE OF CONDUCT:

As a signatory of the UN Global Compact, SCA's Code of conduct clearly states SCA's position against slavery, bonded labour and trafficking.

Internal accountability standards and procedures are defined to help confirm that employees and suppliers meet SCA standards. Supplier accountability occurs through mechanisms ranging from audit corrective actions (see "AUDITS," above) to supplier scorecards and quarterly business reviews.

SCA also maintains corporate-wide accountability and grievance mechanisms, which are available to both employees and external parties.

6. TRAINING:

All SCA supply chain management professionals are trained on the SCA Code of Conduct regularly through a variety of training approaches, from in-person, workshops to online modules. Human trafficking is consistently covered as part of the training provided.

SCA's Global Supply Chain Management organization has responsibility for implementing and monitoring compliance to all of the supply chain activities described above.

Our focus on slavery and human trafficking is part of a larger effort to encourage supply chain transparency and accountability. We will not tolerate forced, bonded (including debt bondage) or indentured labour, involuntary prison labour, slavery, or trafficking of persons by any SCA supplier or for any other purpose.

Further information can be obtained in SCA's Sustainability Report.
