DUE DILIGENCE PROCESSES FOR SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we:

- aim to identify and assess potential risk areas in our own business and our supply chains;
- try to mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our own business and our supply chains;
- monitor potential risk areas in our own business and our supply chains;
- where possible we build long standing relationships with suppliers and make clear our expectations of their business behaviour;

Our Procurement Director is currently responsible for compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and for the supplier relationships.

TRAINING

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, all directors and members of the Management Board have been briefed on the subject and we continue to assess training needs for all relevant members of our staff.

OUR EFFECTIVENESS IN COMBATING SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

We will use the following key performance indicators (KPIs) to measure how effective we have been to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in any part of our business or supply chains:

- use of our payroll systems.

STEPS TAKEN DURING THE FINANCIAL YEAR TO 30 JUNE 2017

In the past financial year we have taken the following steps to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in our supply chains, and in any part of our own business:

- a) Our template supply contracts have been updated to reinforce specific requirements to comply with the Modern Slavery Act, in addition to the general obligations to comply with relevant laws which were already included in our template contracts ;
- b) Our Supplier Code of Conduct has been updated to include more detailed provisions specifically to cover issues of slavery and human trafficking;

- c) As part of our Future Fit transformation, we are updating our procurement processes. This includes putting in place new 'e-procurement' software, as part of which we will automate our processes for ensuring that suppliers are aware of and will comply with our requirements on modern slavery and human trafficking.
