

Company: Thales

Date: July 26, 2018

RE: Human rights concerns regarding Thales's sales to the Egyptian government

Thales is very concerned by the protection of Human Right. Moreover, Thales fully complies with the French, European and US regulations on export control. The Group fully supports the UN Arms Trade Treaty.

All these regulations include the Human Right issues. Further details on Thales commitments regarding Human Rights can be found in its Integrated Report that can be downloaded in its website".