

Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement 2017/18

Our anti-slavery and human trafficking statement reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships.

We have responsibility under the Modern Slavery Act 2015 to ensure transparency in the provision of all our goods and services. We will seek to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our business or supply chains.

Supply Chain

A2Dominion procures services and products directly and through our partnerships and contractual relationships with other suppliers and agencies. These are sourced from the UK, Europe and beyond. A2Dominion does not wish to support or deal with any business that is knowingly involved in slavery or human trafficking in any part of its operations.

To that extent, A2Dominion continues to include within its tender documentation, a requirement for potential suppliers to provide a statement of assurance regarding its procedures and practices around modern slavery.

A2Dominion will continue to review its procurement policies regarding tenders and contracts to ensure they reflect best practice and to mitigate against the risk of modern slavery.

Employees

We are committed to ensuring that our employees and workers are not subject to any form of servitude, forced, compulsory or bonded labour. Employees will have the freedom to leave freely and without threat to themselves or their family.

All our employees will be treated fairly and equally. We regularly review all our terms of employment to ensure that they comply with all relevant legislation.

Employees will be provided with clear and transparent information about rates of pay, hours worked and legal deductions.
