

Modern Slavery Statement

Travellanda Ltd is a wholesale travel provider, with 40 employees based in offices in London, Istanbul and Bangkok. Our clients are travel agents, tour operators and OTA's and our supply chain is made up of a large number of third party providers, all are worldwide.

Travellanda has a zero tolerance approach to slavery and human trafficking and expect our suppliers and clients to uphold the same values.

Travellanda will not conduct any business knowingly with anyone engaged in slavery and human trafficking or knowingly permit them to be carried out in any part on behalf of the business. We are committed to ensuring that there is a transparency in our business and our approach to tackling this and have practices in place to encourage staff to raise concerns of any wrong-doing.

Travellanda will continue to review the effectiveness of these policies and its supply chain controls, implementing enhancements when required.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Group's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending in March 2020.

This statement has been approved by the Travellanda Ltd Board and responsibility for Anti-Slavery Initiatives lies with the Travellanda Directors.
