

Modern Slavery Act 2015 – Yakult UK Ltd

Yakult UK Ltd is committed to adhering to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 within its business and supply chain.

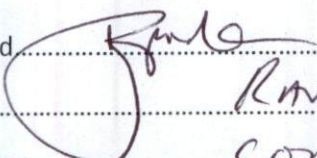

Yakult UK Ltd imports and distributes its products to all its customers across the UK and Republic of Ireland using outsourced third party logistic companies.

As part of our commitment to combating modern slavery we endeavour to make sure our supply chain of outsourced third party logistics companies are made aware of our policies and adhere to the same standards.

Yakult UK Ltd as part of its efforts to limit modern slavery carries out the following:

- Annual audits to evaluate compliance with legal and company standards.
- Risk based interviews with key stakeholders
- Implements additional procedures where the company's supply chain is identified as most at risk or where a breach is most likely to occur.
- Manages and takes action on any non-compliance to enforce Yakult UK Ltd policy towards the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- Regularly updates, develops and reviews due diligence procedures to ensure compliance with the policy.
- Yakult UK Ltd will continue to evaluate, monitor and improve on the Modern Slavery Act 2015 on an annual basis.
