

Versace's response to the report by Clean Clothes Campaign

Business & Human Rights Resource Centre invited Versace to respond to the following report:

– “Europe’s sweatshops: The results of CCC’s most recent researches in Central, East and South East Europe”, Clean Clothes Campaign, 17 November 2017:

<https://cleanclothes.org/livingwage/europe/europes-sweatshops>

In response, Versace sent the following statement:

12 December 2017

Dear Madam,

Thank you for your email. Please see below official comments from Versace.

Gianni Versace Spa considers the respect of human rights as critical and requires the same commitment to its supply chain.

In order to maintain visibility and transparency, the Company is continuously in the process of carrying out social and environmental audits on suppliers based on the leading standards of the sector, including evaluation of human rights, fair wages, and working conditions.

Versace is committed to ongoing improvement of our supply chain, with several initiatives currently in process. Versace looks forward to keeping our partners and stakeholders updated.

Regards,

Versace Press Office
Via Borgospesso 15/A Milano
www.versace.com