

“BESTSELLER’s response”, 8 March 2022

We are in dialogue with this supplier and they have committed to full payment of arrears by October 2022, with the additional caveat that if any court judgement is handed down in the meantime then that judgement will be strictly followed. As per our Code of Conduct (CoC), BESTSELLER requires suppliers to respect the laws concerning compensation for work. Failure to pay legal wages is a zero-tolerance issue in our supply chain and BESTSELLER does offboard suppliers that show no willingness to remediate CoC violations within agreed CAPs. Please note our factory offboarding procedure is aligned with ACT's guidance on responsible offboarding.
