

“ASDA’s response”, 23 September 2022

We have a clear policy for suppliers to follow which explains our standards and expectations that rights of all workers are to be respected. We have long-standing relationships with our garment suppliers in these regions of India and we will work with them and the BHHRC to investigate any claims within this report relating to factories which supply George clothing and will take any breaches of our policy extremely seriously.