

To: Ella Skybenko & Vladyslava Kaplina – Business & Human Rights Resource Centre
From: Marvell
Date: March 9, 2023

RE: Invitation to respond - Marvell Technology

Marvell is appalled that any of its products are used in Russian weapons. The parts are mass produced, inexpensive commercial components. Marvell does not sell to the Russian military or government. We have a strong export compliance program and have no knowledge how these parts have found their way into Russia.