

FIRST QUANTUM
MINERALS LTD.

10th May 2023

Attention: Natalia Daza Niño - Natural Resources Assistant Researcher, Business & Human Rights Resource Centre

Statement issued in response to emails received from Business & Human Rights Resource Centre of 24th April and 4th May 2023.

First Quantum has at all times operated within the applicable laws of those jurisdictions where our mines are located. We believe in democratic processes the strength of which are very important to many of the countries in which we operate. The Company has never had any kind of partisan or ideological orientation and categorically rejects any suggestion that it has acted improperly or attempted to subvert the democratic process in the countries where First Quantum operates.
