

17 November 2014

We take safety extremely seriously throughout our business and we are very saddened by the tragic loss of life at the Grasberg mine operated by Freeport in Indonesia. Senior Rio Tinto leaders have visited the site, shared our company knowledge and provided practical advice to support Freeport's actions to learn from and avoid a recurrence of these tragic accidents.