You agree that: (i) the Websites and Applications shall be deemed solely based in Michigan; and (ii) the Websites and Applications shall be deemed passive websites and applications that do not give rise to personal jurisdiction over Domino's, either specific or general, in jurisdictions other than Michigan. These Terms of Use shall be governed by the internal substantive laws of the State of Michigan, without respect to its conflict of laws principles. These Terms of Use, together with the Privacy Policy and any other legal notices published by Domino's on the Websites or Applications, shall constitute the entire agreement between you and Domino's concerning the Websites and Applications. If any provision of these Terms of Use is deemed invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity of such provision shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of these Terms of Use, which shall remain in full force and effect. No waiver of any term of these Terms of Use shall be deemed a further or continuing waiver of such term or any other term, and the failure by Domino's to assert any right or provision under these Terms of Use shall not constitute a waiver of such right or provision. Domino's reserves the right to amend these Terms of Use (other than the arbitration provision) at any time and without notice, and it is your responsibility to review these Terms of Use for any changes. YOU AND DOMINO'S AGREE THAT ANY CAUSE OF ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THE WEBSITES AND APPLICATIONS MUST COMMENCE WITHIN ONE (1) YEAR AFTER THE CAUSE OF ACTION ACCRUES. California Transparency in Supply Chains Act

As a company philosophy, Domino's Pizza, Inc. and its subsidiaries and affiliates ("Domino's Pizza") strongly oppose any and all illegal and unethical treatment of individuals, including acts of slavery or human trafficking. Domino's Pizza utilizes a standard agreement that requires its suppliers to comply with all applicable laws, which includes applicable labor laws. Domino's Pizza also provides to its suppliers a Code of Ethics that similarly notifies suppliers of their obligation to comply with all applicable laws and also provides a dedicated avenue for reporting any illegal or unethical behavior. Domino's Pizza conducts periodic assessments of its suppliers and is determining whether to expand this assessment to obtain information about its suppliers' activities related to the California Transparency in Supply Chains Act of 2010. Domino's Pizza is also considering implementing requests for certification from its suppliers and/or audits of its suppliers. At this time, Domino's Pizza does not plan to utilize a third party to perform any verifications or audits. Domino's Pizza also expects to evaluate whether training and/or changes in accountability standards and procedures for its employees and/or contractors are appropriate.
