

PricewaterhouseCoopers' response re allegation that through its contracts with ICE it is profiting from Trump's anti-immigrant crackdown and the detention of migrants and asylum seekers

30 July 2019

Business & Human Rights Resource Centre invited PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) to respond to the following article:

- "Children are suffering. These companies are profiting." Popular.info, 1 July 2019

PricewaterhouseCoopers sent the following response:

"PwC divested its public sector business in 2018 and does not perform work for US Immigration and Customs Enforcement."
