Products of Slavery and Child Labour

There are an estimated 168 million children in child labour and 21 million people in forced labour across the world today.

Child labour is defined as work that deprives children of their childhood and the opportunity to attend school, and that is harmful to their physical and mental development.

Forced labour all work or service which is exacted from any person under the menace of any penalty and for which the worker does not offer himself or herself voluntarily.

Anti-Slavery International

Anti-Slavery International is the only UK-based charity exclusively working to eliminate all forms of slavery and slavery-like practices throughout the world.

More information at: Anti-Slavery International info@antislavery.org
www.antislavery.org
UK Registered charity no. 3099560

Sources of Information
www.dol.gov
www.hrw.org www.danwatch.dk

Disclaimer: This map does not intend to link the export of specific goods or countries. The decisions of countries or products on the list of 10. For more information on the good and amount of child or forced labour in these countries or their products. Conversely, the inclusion of products does not automatically mean it is produced with child or forced labour. The export of goods in a particular country does not reflect the scale of forced labour in that country.